Starting a career can feel overwhelming...

BUT!

It's easier with a mentor in your corner.

Global Mentorship Initiative (GMI) connects aspiring professionals to experienced volunteer mentors who provide insight, confidence and practical guidance helping them transition confidently from education to employment.

GMI's Mission

Our mission is to bridge the gap between graduation and first career jobs for aspiring young professionals.

We envision a world where every young person, regardless of where they are born, can access dignified work and meaningful career opportunities.

GMI's Impact

In 5 years, GMI has grown from supporting 4 students to over 19,000 in 100 countries.

In 2026, another 9,000 students will join GMI.

GMI is building a community of committed university, nonprofit, and corporate partners, all working together towards a more equitable world.

GMI Student Community

- Top Majors: STEM (50%) Business (20%)
- 80% First Generation University Students
- 74% Receive Financial Aid
- 55% Both First Gen. and Fin. Aid
- 13% of non-US mentees are refugees or displaced persons

"This experience helped me build confidence, strengthen my professional skills, and better position myself for future career opportunities."

Hours Tracker

Corporate matching of your volunteer hours is a significant part of GMI's funding to continue the mentorship program.

Mentors usually record at least 30 hours for every 12-session mentorship they complete.
